THE EAST VILLAGE IN THE SIXTIES!

"A useful counter-balance...
to the sentimental view
of hippies given by the commercial cinema."

—THE DAILY TELEGRAPH

"Fascinating!"

—NEWSWEEK

FEATURING
ABBIE HOFFMAN, PHIL OCHS, AND PAUL KRASSNER!

Shot in 1968, one year after the Summer of Love, LAST SUMMER WON'T HAPPEN is a critical yet sympathetic examination of the anti-war movement in New York City. The film traces the development group of activists on the Lower East Side. We see their growth from isolated, alienated individuals to a politically empowered community.
