THE STRANGE LITTLE CAT

A FILM BY RAMON ZÜRCHER

In The Strange Little Cat, an extended family-dinner gathering becomes an exquisitely layered confection ready for writer-director Ramon Zürcher's razor-sharp slicing. A mother desperately trying not to implode and her youngest daughter who explodes constantly form poles between which sons and daughters, aunts and uncles, family pets and cousins weave in and around each other in the tight domestic space of a middle-class Berlin flat. Fans of Béla Tarr, Jacques Tati and Franz Kafka will find much to love. A comedic examination of the everyday that has been captivating audiences that began at its 2013 Berlin Film Festival premiere through it's US theatrical run.
