2016 | Austria | 94 mins | Color | No dialogue

CRITICS' PICK! "In a way, the images are reminiscent of the empty, haunted spaces associated with the art cinema of Andrei Tarkovsky and Bela Tarr."

-THE NEW YORK TIMES

"Instead of uncovering artifacts from long ago, HOMO SAPIENS shows us our own relics in the making."

-THE VILLAGE VOICE

"One might argue that 20 minutes or so is enough, but what HOMO SAPIENS offers in its succession of carefully framed shots is sometimes too tantalizing to resist."

-A.V. CLUB

"It is science fiction and documentary in equal measure, equal parts contemporary and post-apocalyptic."

-BERLINALE FORUM

HOMO SAPIENS

A FILM BY Nikolaus Geyrhalter

SRP: $29.99

HOMO SAPIENS is a film about the finiteness and fragility of human existence and the end of the industrial age. What will remain of our lives after we're gone? Empty spaces, ruins, cities increasingly overgrown with vegetation, crumbling asphalt: the areas we currently inhabit, though humanity has disappeared. Now abandoned and decaying, gradually reclaimed by nature after being taken from it so long ago. HOMO SAPIENS is an ode to humanity as seen from a possible future scenario.
