

Kimstim PRESENTS The Teen Lesbian Romance/Horror Film You've Been Waiting For!

“A horror-tinged tale of teenage bullying and payback. Alena is a polished and entertaining hunk of teen angst.”
- Variety

“The preppiness of the film is overbearing and that’s why the hair-raising scenes work: you just don’t expect a nerdy teenage girl in a school uniform to assault her classmate in the shower.”
- VICE

- Based on the internationally acclaimed graphic novel by Kim W. Andersson, published in the US by Dark Horse Books
- Tremendous social media following for Dark Horse Books
- Festival favorite! Dozens of screenings at horror, fantasy and LGBT film festivals

ALENA a film by Daniel Di Grado

83 min / 2016 / Sweden, US / Swedish with English Subtitles

SRP: $29.99 UPC # 6-98452-21283-8

With a traumatic event in her recent past, Alena transfers to a posh private all-girls school where her decidedly lower class roots makes her an outsider. While a gang of mean rich girls are determined to make Alena’s life a living hell, she is mysteriously defended by a shadowy and jealous, yet beautiful guardian angel. Based on Kim W. Andersson’s internationally acclaimed graphic novel, Alena is a psychological thriller that combines the revenge themes of Carrie with the tough love of Let the Right One In.
