The New York Times
● Critic's Pick

"A spine-tingler about love and death, and the allure of mystery and its perils."

-Manohla Dargis, NEW YORK TIMES

CRITIC'S PICK!

"You don't notice your skin crawling until it's halfway out the door."

-Rob Staeger, VILLAGE VOICE

"Creepy uses silence as a tool of terror, following its characters through long, tense scenes where everything's a little too quiet, and where each creak sounds like a scream."

-Noel Murray, LOS ANGELES TIMES

"Creepy is as SUBLIME as any prior Kiyoshi Kurosawa film."

-Chuck Bowen, SLANT MAGAZINE

"In Creepy...Kurosawa is a MASTERFUL filmmaker."

- Brian Tallerico, ROGEREBERT.COM

Kiyoshi Kurosawa, who made his name with classics Cure and Bright Future, gets back to his roots by putting the thumb-screws to the audience with his latest, Creepy.

A year after a botched hostage negotiation with a serial killer turned deadly, ex-detective Koichi (Hidetoshi Nishijima), and his wife move into a new house with a deeply strange new neighbor (Teruyuki Kagawa). His old cop colleagues come calling for his help on a mysterious case, which may be related to the strange goings-on next door, in this insidiously-constructed narrative that braids plot twists on top of plot twists and shock on top of shock.
