The lives of a beautiful divorcee and a troubled detective intersect during the investigation of a vicious murder on the grimy, rain-soaked streets of London, sparking a tangled web of passion, intrigue and deceit.

An absorbing film noir told from the perspective of an intriguing woman, a key suspect in a murder case, who becomes an obsession for the detective in charge of the investigation. Barnaby Southcombe has assembled a high-calibre cast for his directorial debut, led by Charlotte Rampling ("Melancholia", "Heading South", "Swimming Pool", "The Damned"), Gabriel Byrne ("Louder Than Bombs", "The Usual Suspects", "The Man in the Iron Mask") and Hayley Atwell ("Captain America", "The Duchess").
