PRESENTS SCOTT COHEN'S STUNNING DEBUT FEATURE!

RED KNOT

a film by SCOTT COHEN

“One of the most gorgeous movies you'll see this year!”

- Elizabeth Weitzman, New York Daily News

“A quiet stunner of a drama... Kartheiser makes this self-involved character more sympathetic and gently human than the one that made him famous on Mad Men; Thirlby, who has made the most of many small roles in her short career, has a light touch here that serves her character well.”

-John DeFore, Hollywood Reporter

A stunningly shot meditation on love and loss, New York newlyweds Peter (Kartheiser) and Chloe (Thirby) fall into marital crisis while on a research vessel en route to Antarctica. As romantic bliss sours, Chloe takes comfort in the company of the ship's captain (Billy Campbell), a man who has good reason for setting himself adrift. As they sail towards the end of the Earth, filmmaker Scott Cohen's astonishingly assured, elegantly shot debut passes into troubled, Polanski-indebted waters.
