“A delightful, candy-colored kids movie with a particularly French touch.”

—HOLLYWOOD REPORTER

“FAMILY-FRIENDLY FUN!”

—MONTREAL GAZETTE

It's the end of the school year and the long-awaited holidays have finally arrived. Little Nicholas, his parents and Granny hit the road heading for the sea, and move into the Beau-Rivage Hotel. At the beach, Nicholas wastes little time making new friends. There's Ben, who isn't on holiday because he lives here, Freddy, who eats anything, all the time...even fish...even raw. There's Jocky, who talks funny because he's English, Crispin the constant crybaby, and Christopher, who always wants to be right and is really, really annoying. Nicholas also gets to know Elizabeth, a little girl who follows him everywhere, wide-eyed. “How sweet, those two. I hear wedding bells in the future,” laugh the grown-ups. Nicholas panics! Luckily, his pals are there to help him...and to cause trouble. Nicholas is going to enjoy a holiday to remember.
