— NEW YORK TIMES

“The 2001: A Space Odyssey of modern food production.”

— THE NATION

“ONE OF THE GREATEST MOVIES I HAVE EVER SEEN... man and nature, good and evil, the quotidian and the sublime – they’re all here.”

— APERTURE

“RIVETING!”

— ENTERTAINMENT WEEKLY

FIRST HD BLU-RAY EDITION!

Welcome to the world of industrial food production and high-tech farming. To the rhythm of conveyor belts and immense machines, the film looks without commenting in the places where food is produced: monumental spaces, surreal landscapes and bizarre sounds – a cool, industrial environment which leaves little space for individualism. People, animals, crops and machines play a supporting role in the logistics of this system which provides our society’s standard of living.

Nikolaus Geyrhalter’s OUR DAILY BREAD is a wide-screen tableau of a feast which isn’t always easy to digest – and in which we all take part. A pure, meticulous and high-end film experience that enables the audience to form their own ideas.
